~~2000~~—Cross reference: Penal Code section 987.1.

Rule 4.101. Bail in criminal cases

The fact that a defendant in a criminal case has or has not asked for a jury trial ~~shall~~ must not be taken into consideration in fixing the amount of bail, ~~nor shall bail and~~, once set, bail may not be increased or reduced by reason of such fact.

Rule 4.102. Uniform bail and penalty schedules—traffic, boating, fish and game, forestry, public utilities, parks and recreation, business licensing

The Judicial Council of California has established the policy of promulgating uniform bail and penalty schedules for certain offenses in order to achieve a standard of uniformity in the handling of these offenses.

In general, bail is used to ensure the presence of the defendant before the court. ~~Pursuant to~~ Under Vehicle Code sections 40512 and 13103, bail may also be forfeited and ~~such~~ forfeiture may be ~~had~~ ordered without the necessity of any further court proceedings and be treated as a conviction for specified Vehicle Code offenses. A penalty in the form of a monetary sum is a fine imposed as all or a portion of a sentence imposed.

To achieve substantial uniformity of bail and penalties throughout the state in traffic, boating, fish and game, forestry, public utilities, parks and recreation, and business licensing cases, the trial court judges, in performing their duty under ~~section 1269b of the Penal Code~~ section 1269b to annually revise and adopt a schedule of bail and penalties for all misdemeanor and infraction offenses except Vehicle Code infractions, ~~shall~~ must give consideration to the Uniform Bail and Penalty Schedules approved by the Judicial Council. The Uniform Bail and Penalty Schedule for infraction violations of the Vehicle Code ~~shall~~ will be established by the Judicial Council in accordance with ~~section 40310 of the Vehicle Code~~ section 40310. Judges ~~shall~~ must give consideration to requiring additional bail for aggravating or enhancing factors.

After a court adopts a countywide bail and penalty schedule, ~~pursuant to~~ under ~~section 1269b of the Penal Code~~ section 1269b, the court ~~shall~~ must, as soon as practicable, mail a copy of the schedule to the Judicial Council with a report stating how the revised schedule differs from the council's uniform traffic bail and penalty schedule, uniform boating bail and penalty schedule, uniform fish and game bail and penalty schedule, uniform forestry bail and penalty schedule, uniform public utilities bail and penalty schedule, uniform parks and recreation bail and penalty schedule, or uniform business licensing bail and penalty schedule.

The purpose of this uniform bail and penalty schedule is to:

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT

- 1
- 2 (1) Show the standard amount for bail, which for Vehicle Code offenses may also be the
- 3 amount ~~utilized~~ used for a bail forfeiture ~~in lieu~~ instead of further proceedings; and
- 4
- 5 (2) Serve as a guideline for the imposition of a fine as all or a portion of the penalty for a
- 6 first conviction of a listed offense where a fine is used as all or a portion of the
- 7 penalty for such offense. The amounts shown for the misdemeanors on the boating,
- 8 fish and game, forestry, public utilities, parks and recreation, and business licensing
- 9 bail and penalty schedules have been set with this dual purpose in mind.
- 10

11 Unless otherwise shown, the maximum penalties for the listed offenses are six months in

12 the county jail or a fine of $1,000, or both. The penalty amounts are intended to be used to

13 provide standard fine amounts for a first offense conviction of a violation shown where a 14 fine is used as all or a portion of the sentence imposed.

When the court appoints standby or advisory counsel to assist a self-represented defendant, the attorney must qualify under (d) or (f) ~~of this rule~~.

(i) Order appointing counsel

When the court appoints counsel to a capital case, the court must complete ~~Judicial Council form CR-190~~ (Order Appointing Counsel in Capital Case) (form CR-190), and counsel must complete ~~Judicial Council form CR-191~~ (Declaration of Counsel Seeking for Appointment in Capital Case) (form CR-191).

Chapter 2. Change of Venue

Rule 4.150. Change of venue: application and general provisions

(a) Application

Rules 4.150 to 4.155 govern the change of venue in criminal cases under Penal Code section 1033.

(b) General provisions

When a change of venue has been ordered, the case remains a case of the transferring court. Except ~~upon~~ on good cause to the contrary, the court must follow the provisions below:

- (1) Proceedings before trial must be heard in the transferring court.
- (2) Proceedings that are not to be heard by the trial judge must be heard in the transferring court.
- (3) Postverdict proceedings, including sentencing, if any, must be heard in the transferring court.

(c) Appellate review

Review by the Court of Appeal, either by an original proceeding or by appeal, must be heard in the appellate district in which the transferring court is located.

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

Advisory Committee Comment (2006)

Subdivision (b)(1). This subdivision is based on Penal Code section 1033(a), which provides that all proceedings before trial are to be heard in the transferring court, except when a particular proceeding must be heard by the trial judge.

Subdivision (b)(2). This subdivision addresses motions heard by a judge other than the trial judge, such as requests for funds under Penal Code section 987.9 or a challenge or disqualification under Code of Civil Procedure section 170 et seq.

Subdivision (b)(3). Reflecting the local community interest in the case, ~~subdivision (b)(3)~~ clarifies that after trial the case is to return to the transferring court for any posttrial proceedings. There may be situations where the local interest is outweighed, warranting the receiving court to conduct posttrial hearings. Such hearings may include motions for new trial where juror testimony is necessary and the convenience to the jurors outweighs the desire to conduct the hearings in the transferring court.

Subdivision (c). This subdivision ensures that posttrial appeals and writs are heard in the same appellate district as any writs that may have been heard before or during trial.

Rule 4.151. Motion for change of venue

(a) Motion procedure

A motion for change of venue in a criminal case under Penal Code section 1033 must be supported by ~~an affidavit or a declaration setting forth~~ stating the facts supporting the application. Except for good cause shown, the motion must be filed at least 10 days before the date set for trial, with a copy served on the adverse party at least 10 days before the hearing. At the hearing counter~~affidavits~~declarations may be filed.

(b) Policy considerations in ruling on motion

Before ordering a change of venue in a criminal case, the transferring court should consider impaneling a jury that would give the defendant a fair and impartial trial.

Advisory Committee Comment (2006)

Rule 4.151(b) is not intended to imply that the court should attempt to impanel a jury in every case before granting a change of venue in every case.

Rule 4.152. Selection of court and trial judge

When a judge grants a motion for change of venue, he or she must inform the presiding judge of the transferring court. The presiding judge, or his or her designee, must:

- (1) Notify the Administrative Director of the Courts of the change of venue. After receiving the transferring court's notification, the Administrative Director, in order to expedite judicial business and equalize the work of the judges, must advise the transferring court which courts would not be unduly burdened by the trial of the case.

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

(2) Select the judge to try the case, as follows:

(A) The presiding judge, or his or her designee, must select a judge from the transferring court, unless he or she concludes that the transferring court does not have adequate judicial resources to try the case.

(B) If the presiding judge, or his or her designee, concludes that the transferring court does not have adequate judicial resources to try the case, he or she must request that the Chief Justice of California determine whether to assign a judge to the transferring court. If the Chief Justice determines not to assign a judge to the transferring court, the presiding judge, or his or her designee, must select a judge from the transferring court to try the case.

Rule 4.153. Order on change of venue

After receiving the list of courts from the Administrative Director of the Courts, the presiding judge, or his or her designee, must:

(1) Determine the court in which the case is to be tried. In making that determination, the court must consider, under Penal Code section 1036.7, whether to move the jury rather than to move the pending action. In so doing, the court should give particular consideration to the convenience of the jurors.

(2) Transmit to the receiving court a certified copy of the order of transfer and any pleadings, documents, or other papers or exhibits necessary for trying the case.

(3) Enter the order for change of venue in the minutes of the transferring court. The order must include the determinations in (1).

Advisory Committee Comment ~~(2006)~~

Rules 4.152 and 4.153 recognize that, although the determination of whether to grant a motion for change of venue is judicial in nature, the selection of the receiving court and the decision whether the case should be tried by a judge of the transferring court are more administrative in nature. Thus, the rules provides that the presiding judge of the transferring court is to make the latter decisions. He or she may delegate those decisions to the trial judge, the supervising judge of the criminal division, or any other judge the presiding judge deems appropriate. If, under the particular facts of the case, the latter decisions are both judicial and administrative, those decisions may be more properly made by the judge who heard the motion for change of venue.

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

Rule 4.154. Proceedings in the receiving court

The receiving court must conduct the trial as if the case had been commenced in the receiving court. If it is necessary to have any of the original pleadings or other papers before the receiving court, the transferring court must transmit such papers or pleadings. If, during the trial, any original papers or pleadings are submitted to the receiving court, the receiving court is to file the original. After sentencing, all original papers and pleadings are to be retained by the transferring court.

Rule 4.155. Guidelines for reimbursement of costs in change of venue cases—criminal cases

(a) General

Consistent with Penal Code section 1037(c), the court in which an action originated must reimburse the court receiving a case after an order for change of venue for any ordinary expenditure and any extraordinary but reasonable-and-necessary expenditure that would not have been incurred by the receiving court but for the change of venue.

(b) Reimbursable ordinary expenditures—court related

Court-related reimbursable ordinary expenses include:

- (1) For prospective jurors on the panel from which the jury is selected and for the trial jurors and alternates seated:
 - (A) Normal juror per diem and mileage at the rates of the receiving court. The cost of the juror should only be charged to a change of venue case if the juror was not used in any other case on the day that juror was excused from the change of venue case.
 - (B) If jurors are sequestered, actual lodging, meals, mileage, and parking expenses up to state Board of Control limits.
 - (C) If jurors are transported to a different courthouse or county, actual mileage and parking expenses.
- (2) For court reporters:
 - (A) The cost of pro tem reporters, even if not used on the change of venue trial, but not the salaries of regular official reporters who would have been paid in any event. The rate of compensation for pro tem reporters should be that of the receiving court.

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

2 (B) The cost of transcripts requested during trial and for any new trial or 3 appeal, using the folio rate of the receiving court.
5 (C) The cost of additional reporters necessary to allow production of a daily or 6 expedited transcript.
8 (3) For assigned judges: The assigned judge's per diem, travel, and other expenses,
9 up to state Board of Control limits, if the judge is assigned to the receiving court 10 because of the change of venue case, regardless of whether the assigned judge is 11 hearing the change of venue case.
12
13 (4) For interpreters and translators:
14
15 (A) The cost of the services of interpreters and translators, not on the court
16 staff, if those services are required under Evidence Code sections 750
17 through 754. Using the receiving court's fee schedule, this cost should be 18 paid whether the services are used in a change of venue trial or to cover
19 staff interpreters and translators assigned to the change of venue trial.
20
21 (B) Interpreters' and translators' actual mileage, per diem, and lodging
22 expenses, if any, ~~which~~ that were incurred in connection with the trial, up
23 to state Board of Control limits.
24
25 (5) For maintenance of evidence: The cost of handling, storing, or maintaining 26 evidence beyond the expenses normally incurred by the receiving court.
27
28 (6) For services and supplies: The cost of services and supplies incurred only
29 because of the change of venue trial, for example, copying and printing charges
30 (such as for juror questionnaires), long-distance telephone calls, and postage. A 31 pro rata share of the costs of routine services and supplies should not be 32 reimbursable.
33
34 (7) For court or county employees:
35
36 (A) Overtime expenditures and compensatory time for staff incurred because 37 of the change of venue case.
38
39 (B) Salaries and benefit costs of extra help or temporary help incurred either 40 because of the change of venue case or to replace staff assigned to the 41 change of venue case.
42
43 (c) Reimbursable ordinary expenses—defendant related

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

Defendant-related reimbursable ordinary expenses include the actual costs incurred for guarding, keeping, and transporting the defendant, including:

- (1) Expenses related to health care: Costs incurred by or on behalf of the defendant such as doctors, hospital expenses, medicines, therapists, and counseling for diagnosis, evaluation, and treatment.
- (2) Cost of food and special clothing for an in-custody defendant.
- (3) Transportation: Nonroutine expenses, such as transporting an in-custody defendant from the transferring court to the receiving court. Routine transportation expenses if defendant is transported by usual means used for other receiving court prisoners should not be reimbursable.

(d) Reimbursable ordinary expenditures—defense expenses

Reimbursable ordinary expenses related to providing defense for the defendant include:

- (1) Matters covered by Penal Code section 987.9 as determined by the transferring court or by a judge designated under that section.
- (2) Payment of other defense costs in accordance with policies of the court in which the action originated, unless good cause to the contrary is shown to the trial court.
- (3) Unless Penal Code section 987.9 applies, the receiving court may, in its sound discretion, approve all trial-related expenses including:
 - (A) Attorney fees for defense counsel and, if any, co-counsel, and actual travel-related expenses, up to state Board of Control limits, for staying in the county of the receiving court during trial and hearings.
 - (B) Paralegal and extraordinary secretarial or office expenditures of defense counsel.
 - (C) Expert witness costs and expenses.
 - (D) The cost of experts assisting in preparation before trial or during trial, for example, persons preparing demonstrative evidence.
 - (E) Investigator expenses.

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

- (F) Defense witness expenses, including reasonable-and-necessary witness fees and travel expenses.

(e) Extraordinary but reasonable-and-necessary expenses

Except in emergencies or unless it is impracticable to do so, a receiving court should give notice before incurring any extraordinary expenditures to the transferring court, in accordance with Penal Code section 1037(d). Extraordinary but reasonable-and-necessary expenditures include:

- (1) Security-related expenditures: The cost of extra security precautions taken because of the risk of escape or suicide or threats of, or the potential for, violence during the trial. These precautions might include, for example, extra bailiffs or correctional officers, special transportation to the courthouse for trial, television monitoring, and security checks of those entering the courtroom.
- (2) Facility remodeling or modification: Alterations to buildings or courtrooms to accommodate the change of venue case.
- (3) Renting or leasing of space or equipment: Renting or leasing of space for courtrooms, offices, and other facilities, or equipment to accommodate the change of venue case.

(f) Nonreimbursable expenses

Nonreimbursable expenses include:

- (1) Normal operating expenses including the overhead of the receiving court, for example:
 - (A) Salary and benefits of existing court staff that would have been paid even if there were no change of venue case.
 - (B) The cost of operating the jail, for example, detention staff costs, normal inmate clothing, utility costs, overhead costs, and jail construction costs. These expenditures would have been incurred whether or not the case was transferred to the receiving court. It is, therefore, inappropriate to seek reimbursement from the transferring court.
- (2) Equipment that is purchased and then kept by the receiving court and that can be used for other purposes or cases.

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

(g) Miscellaneous

- (1) Documentation of costs: No expense should be submitted for reimbursement without supporting documentation, such as a claim, invoice, bill, statement, or time sheet. In unusual circumstances, a declaration under penalty of perjury may be necessary. The declaration should describe the cost and state that it was incurred because of the change of venue case. Any required court order or approval of costs also should be sent to the transferring court.
- (2) Timing of reimbursement: Unless both courts agree to other terms, reimbursement of all expenses that are not questioned by the transferring court should be made within 60 days of receipt of the claim for reimbursement. Payment of disputed amounts should be made within 60 days of the resolution of the dispute.

Division 2 3. Trials

Rule 4.200. Pre–voir dire conference in criminal cases

(a) The conference

Before jury selection begins in criminal cases, the court must conduct a conference with counsel to determine:

- (1) A brief outline of the nature of the case, including a summary of the criminal charges;
- (2) The names of persons counsel intend to call as witnesses at trial;
- (3) The People’s theory of culpability and the defendant’s theories;
- (4) The procedures for deciding requests for excuse for hardship and challenges for cause;
- (5) The areas of inquiry and specific questions to be asked by the court and by counsel and any time limits on counsel’s examination;
- (6) The schedule for the trial and the predicted length of the trial;
- (7) The number of alternate jurors to be selected and the procedure for selecting ~~alternate jurors~~ them; and
- (8) The procedure for making Wheeler/Batson objections.

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

The judge must, if requested, excuse the defendant from then disclosing any defense theory.

(b) Written questions

The court may require counsel to submit in writing, and before the conference, all questions that counsel requests the court to ask of prospective jurors. This rule applies to questions to be asked either orally or by written questionnaire. The Juror Questionnaire for Criminal Cases (form MC-002) may be used.

Advisory Committee Comment

~~Use~~ This rule is to be used in conjunction with ~~standard 8-5~~ 4.30.

Rule 4.201. Voir dire in criminal cases

To select a fair and impartial jury, the judge must conduct an initial examination of the prospective jurors orally, or by written questionnaire, or by both methods. The Juror Questionnaire for Criminal Cases (form MC-002) may be used. After completion of the initial examination, the court must permit counsel to conduct supplemental questioning as provided in Code of Civil Procedure section 223.

Rule ~~4.210.828~~. Traffic court—trial by written declaration

(a) Applicability

This rule establishes the minimum procedural requirements for trials by written declaration under Vehicle Code section 40902. The procedures established by this rule ~~shall~~ must be followed in all trials by written declaration under ~~Vehicle Code that~~ section 40902.

(b) Procedure

(1) Definition of due date

As used in this subdivision, “due date” means the last date on which the defendant’s appearance is timely.

(2) Extending due date

If the clerk receives the defendant’s written request for a trial by written declaration by the appearance date indicated on the Notice to Appear, the clerk ~~shall~~ must, within 15 calendar days after receiving the defendant’s written request, extend the appearance date 25 calendar days and ~~shall~~ must give or mail notice to the defendant of the extended due date on the Request for Trial by Written Declaration (form TR-205) with a copy of the Instructions to Defendant (form TR-200) and any other required forms.

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

(3) Election

The defendant ~~shall~~ must file a Request for Trial by Written Declaration (form TR-205) with the clerk by the appearance date indicated on the Notice to Appear or the extended due date as provided in ~~subdivision~~ (2). The Request for Trial by Written Declaration (form TR-205) ~~shall~~ must be filed in addition to the defendant's written request for a trial by written declaration, unless the defendant's request was made on the election form.

(4) Bail

The defendant ~~shall~~ must deposit bail with the clerk by the appearance date indicated on the Notice to Appear or the extended due date as provided in ~~subdivision~~ (2).

(5) Instructions to arresting officer

If the clerk receives the defendant's Request for Trial by Written Declaration (form TR-205) and bail by the due date, the clerk ~~shall~~ must deliver or mail to the arresting officer's agency Notice and Instructions to Arresting Officer (form TR-210) and Officer's Declaration (form TR-235) with a copy of the Notice to Appear and a specified return date for receiving the officer's declaration. After receipt of the officer's declaration, or at the close of the officer's return date if no officer's declaration is filed, the clerk ~~shall~~ must submit the case file with all declarations and other evidence received to the court for decision.

(6) Court decision

After the court decides the case and returns the file and decision, the clerk ~~shall~~ must immediately deliver or mail the Decision and Notice of Decision (form TR-215) to the defendant and the arresting agency.

(7) Trial de novo

If the defendant files a Request for New Trial (Trial de Novo) (form TR-220) within 20 calendar days after the date of delivery or mailing of the Decision and Notice of Decision (form TR-215), the clerk ~~shall~~ must set a trial date ~~that shall~~ be within 45 calendar days of receipt of the defendant's written request for a

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

~~new trial de novo~~. The clerk ~~shall~~ must deliver or mail to the defendant and to the arresting officer's agency the Order and Notice to Defendant of New Trial (Trial de Novo) (form TR-225). If the defendant's request is not timely received, no ~~new trial de novo~~ ~~shall~~ may be held and the case ~~shall~~ must be closed.

(8) Case and time standard

The clerk ~~shall~~ must deliver or mail the Decision and Notice of Decision (form TR-215) within 90 calendar days after the due date. Acts for which no specific time is stated in this rule ~~shall~~ must be performed promptly so that the Decision and Notice of Decision can be timely delivered or mailed by the clerk. Failure of the clerk or the court to comply with any time limit ~~shall~~ does not void or invalidate the decision of the court, unless prejudice to the defendant is shown.

(c) Due dates and time limits

Due dates and time limits ~~shall~~ must be as stated in this rule, unless changed or extended by the court. The court may extend any date, but the court need not state the reasons for granting or denying an extension on the record or in the minutes.

(d) Ineligible defendants

If the defendant requests a trial by written declaration and the clerk or the court determines that the defendant is not eligible for a trial by written declaration, the clerk ~~shall~~ must extend the due date 25 calendar days and notify the defendant by mail of the determination and due date.

(e) Noncompliance

If the defendant does not comply with this rule (including submitting the required bail amount, signing and filing all required forms, and complying with all time limits and due dates), the court may deny a trial by written declaration and may proceed as otherwise provided by statute and court rules.

(f) Evidence

Testimony and other relevant evidence may be introduced in the form of a Notice to Appear issued under Vehicle Code section 40500; a business record or receipt; a sworn declaration of the arresting officer; and, on behalf of the defendant, a sworn declaration of the defendant.

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

(g) Fines, assessments, or penalties

The statute and the rules ~~shall~~ do not prevent or preclude the court from imposing on a defendant who is found guilty any lawful fine, assessment, or other penalty, and the court is not limited to imposing money penalties in the bail amount, unless the bail amount is the maximum and the only lawful penalty.

(h) Additional forms and procedures

The clerk may approve and prescribe forms, time limits, and procedures that are not in conflict with or not inconsistent with the statute or this rule.

(i) Forms

The following forms ~~shall~~ are to be used to implement the procedures under this rule:

- (7) Order and Notice to Defendant of New Trial (Trial de Novo) (form TR-225)

(j) Local forms

A court may adopt additional forms as may be required to implement this rule and the court's local procedures not inconsistent with this rule.

Division ~~3~~ 4. Sentencing

~~Title Four, Criminal Cases—Division III, Sentencing—retitled effective January 1, 2001.~~

Rule 4.300. Commitments to nonpenal institutions

When a defendant is convicted of a crime for which sentence could be imposed under Penal Code section 1170 and the court orders that he or she be committed to the California

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, Division of Juvenile Justice under Welfare and Institutions Code section 1731.5, the order of commitment must specify the term of imprisonment to which the defendant would have been sentenced. The term is determined as provided by Penal Code sections 1170 and 1170.1 and these rules, as though a sentence of imprisonment were to be imposed

Advisory Committee Comment ~~(2006)~~

Commitments to the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, Division of Juvenile Justice (formerly Youth Authority) ~~commitments~~ cannot exceed the maximum possible incarceration in an adult institution for the same crime. People v. Olivas (1976) 17 Cal.3d 236.

Under the indeterminate sentencing law, the receiving institution knew, as a matter of law from the record of the conviction, the maximum potential period of imprisonment for the crime of which the defendant was convicted.

Under the Uniform Determinate Sentencing Act, the court's discretion as to length of term leaves doubt as to the maximum term when only the record of convictions is present.

Rule 4.305. Notification of appeal rights in felony cases

After imposing sentence or making an order deemed to be a final judgment in a criminal case ~~upon~~ on conviction after trial, or after imposing sentence following a revocation of probation, except where the revocation is after the defendant's admission of violation of probation, the court ~~shall~~ must advise the defendant of his or her right to appeal, of the necessary steps and time for taking an appeal, and of the right of an indigent defendant to have counsel appointed by the reviewing court. A reporter's transcript of the proceedings required by this rule ~~shall~~ must be forthwith prepared and certified by the reporter and filed with the clerk.

Rule 4.306. Notification of appeal rights in misdemeanor and infraction cases

After imposing sentence or making an order deemed to be a final judgment in a misdemeanor case ~~upon~~ on conviction after trial or following a revocation of probation, the court ~~shall~~ must orally or in writing advise a defendant not represented by counsel of the right to appeal, the time for filing a notice of appeal, and the right of an indigent defendant to have counsel appointed on appeal. This rule ~~shall~~ does not apply to infractions or ~~where~~ when a revocation of probation is ordered after the defendant's admission of a violation of probation.

Rule 4.310. Determination of presentence custody time credit

At the time of sentencing, the court ~~shall~~ must cause to be recorded on the judgment or commitment the total time in custody to be credited ~~upon~~ on the sentence under Penal Code sections 2900.5, 2933.1(c), and 2933.2(c). ~~Upon~~ On referral of the defendant to the probation officer for an investigation and report under Penal Code section 1203(b) or 1203(g), or ~~upon~~ on setting a date for sentencing in the absence of a referral, the court ~~shall~~ must direct the sheriff, probation officer, or other appropriate person to report to the court and notify the defendant or defense counsel and prosecuting attorney within a reasonable time ~~prior to~~ before the date set for sentencing as to the number of days that defendant has been in custody and for which he or she may be entitled to credit. Any challenges to the report ~~shall~~ must be heard at the time of sentencing.

Rule 4.315. Setting date for execution of death sentence

(a) Open session of court; notice required

A date for execution of a judgment of death under Penal Code section 1193 or ~~section 1227 of the Penal Code~~ ~~shall~~ must be set at a public session of the court at which the defendant and the People may be represented.

At least 10 days before the session of court at which the date will be set, the court ~~shall~~ must mail notice of the time and place of the proceeding by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to the Attorney General, the district attorney, the defendant at the prison address, the defendant's counsel or, if none is known, counsel who most recently represented the defendant on appeal or in postappeal legal proceedings, and the executive director of the California Appellate Project in San Francisco. The clerk ~~shall~~ must file a certificate of mailing copies of the notice. The court ~~shall~~ may not hold the proceeding or set an execution date unless the record contains a clerk's certificate showing that the notices required by this subdivision were timely mailed.

Unless otherwise provided by statute, the defendant does not have a right to be present in person.

(b) Selection of date; notice

If, at the announced session of court, the court sets a date for execution of the judgment of death, the court ~~shall~~ must mail certified copies of the order setting the date to the warden of the state prison and to the Governor, as required by statute; and ~~shall~~ must also, within five days of the making of the order, mail by first-class mail, postage prepaid, certified copies of the order setting the date to each of the persons required to be given notice by ~~subdivision~~ (a). The clerk ~~shall~~ must file a certificate of mailing copies of the order.

Rule 4.320. Records of criminal convictions (Gov. Code, §§ 69844.5, 71280.5)

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

(a) Information to be submitted

In addition to the information that the Department of Justice requires from courts under Penal Code section 13151, each trial court ~~shall~~ must also report, electronically or manually, the following information, in the form and manner specified by the Department of Justice:

(1) Whether the defendant was represented by counsel or waived the right to counsel; and

(2) In the case of a guilty or nolo contendere plea, whether:

(A) The defendant was advised of and understood the charges; and

(B) The defendant was advised of, understood, and waived the right to a jury trial, the right to confront witnesses, and the privilege against self-incrimination; and

(C) The court found the plea was voluntary and intelligently made.

For purposes of this rule, a change of plea form signed by the defendant, defense counsel if the defendant was represented by counsel, and the judge, and filed with the court is a sufficient basis for the clerk or deputy clerk to report that the requirements of ~~subdivision~~ (2) have been met.

(b) Certification required

The reporting clerk or a deputy clerk ~~shall~~ must certify that the report submitted to the Department of Justice under Penal Code section 13151 and this rule is a correct abstract of the information contained in the court's records in the case.

Rule 4.325. Ignition interlock installation orders: "interest of justice" exceptions

If the court finds that the interest of justice requires an exception to the Vehicle Code sections 14601(e), 14601.1(d), 14601.4(c), or 14601.5(g) requirements for installation of an ignition interlock device under Vehicle Code section 23575, the reasons for the finding must be stated on the record.

Division 4 5. Sentencing—Determinate Sentencing Law

~~Title Four, Criminal Cases—Division IV, Sentencing—Determinate Sentencing Law—retitled effective January 1, 2001.~~

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

Rule 4.401. Authority

The rules in this division are adopted ~~pursuant to~~ under Penal Code section 1170.3 and ~~pursuant to~~ under the authority granted to the Judicial Council by the Constitution, article VI, section 6, to adopt rules for court administration, practice, and procedure.

Rule 4.403. ~~Applicability~~ Application

These rules apply only to criminal cases in which the defendant is convicted of one or more offenses punishable as a felony by a determinate sentence imposed ~~pursuant to~~ under Penal Code part 2, title 7, chapter 4.5 (commencing with section 1170) ~~of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Penal Code.~~

Advisory Committee Comment (2003)

The sentencing rules do not apply to offenses carrying a life term or other indeterminate sentences for which sentence is imposed under section 1168(b).

The operative portions of section 1170 deal exclusively with prison sentences; and the mandate to the Judicial Council in section 1170.3 is limited to criteria affecting the length of prison sentences and the grant or denial of probation. Criteria dealing with jail sentences, fines, or jail time and fines as conditions of probation, would substantially exceed the mandate of the legislation.

Rule 4.405. Definitions

As used in this division, unless the context otherwise requires:

~~(a)~~ (1) “These rules” means the rules in this division.

~~(b)~~ (2) “Base term” is the determinate prison term selected from among the three possible terms prescribed by statute or the determinate prison term prescribed by law if a range of three possible terms is not prescribed.

~~(c)~~ (3) “Enhancement” means an additional term of imprisonment added to the base term.

~~(d)~~ (4) “Aggravation” or “circumstances in aggravation” means facts ~~which~~ that justify the imposition of the upper prison term referred to in Penal Code section 1170(b).

~~(e)~~ (5) “Mitigation” or “circumstances in mitigation” means facts ~~which~~ that justify the imposition of the lower of three authorized prison terms or facts ~~which~~ that justify the court in striking the additional punishment for an enhancement when the court has discretion to do so.

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

~~(f)~~ (6) “Sentence choice” means the selection of any disposition of the case ~~which~~ that does not amount to a dismissal, acquittal, or grant of a new trial.

~~(g)~~ (7) “Section” means a section of the Penal Code.

~~(h)~~ (8) “Imprisonment” means confinement in a state prison.

~~(i)~~ (9) “Charged” means charged in the indictment or information.

~~(j)~~ (10) “Found” means admitted by the defendant or found to be true by the trier of fact upon trial.

Advisory Committee Comment ~~(2004)~~

“Base term” is the term of imprisonment selected under section 1170(b) from the three possible terms. (See section 1170(a)(3); People v. Scott (1994) 9 Cal.4th 331, 349.)

“Enhancement.” The facts giving rise to an enhancement, the requirements for pleading and proving those facts, and the court’s authority to strike the additional term are prescribed by statutes. See, for example, sections 667.5 (prior prison terms), 12022 (being armed with a firearm or using a deadly weapon), 12022.5 (using a firearm), 12022.6 (excessive taking or damage), 12022.7 (great bodily injury), 1170.1(e) (pleading and proof), and 1385(c) (authority to strike the additional punishment). Note: A consecutive sentence is not an enhancement. (See section 1170.1(a); People v. Tassell (1984) 36 Cal.3d 77, 90 [overruled on other grounds in People v. Ewoldt (1994) 7 Cal.4th 380, 401].)

“Sentence choice.” Section 1170(c) requires the judge to state reasons for the sentence choice. This general requirement is discussed in rule 4.406.

“Imprisonment” is distinguished from confinement in other types of facilities.

“Charged” and “found.” Statutes require that the facts giving rise to all enhancements be charged and found. See section 1170.1(e).

Rule 4.406. Reasons

(a) How given

If the sentencing judge is required to give reasons for a sentence choice, the judge ~~shall~~ must state in simple language the primary factor or factors that support the exercise of discretion or, if applicable, state that the judge has no discretion. The statement need not be in the language of these rules. It ~~shall~~ must be delivered orally on the record.

(b) When reasons required

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

Sentence choices that generally require a statement of a reason include:

- (1) Granting probation;
- (2) Imposing a prison sentence and thereby denying probation;
- (3) Declining to commit to the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, Division of Juvenile Justice an eligible juvenile found amenable for treatment;
- (4) Selecting a term other than the middle statutory term for either an offense or an enhancement;
- (5) Imposing consecutive sentences;
- (6) Imposing full consecutive sentences under section 667.6(c) rather than consecutive terms under section 1170.1(a), when the court has that choice;
- (7) Striking the punishment for an enhancement;
- (8) Waiving a restitution fine;
- (9) Not committing an eligible defendant to the California Rehabilitation Center;
and
- (10) Striking an enhancement or prior conviction allegation under section 1385(a).

Advisory Committee Comment

This rule is not intended to expand the statutory requirements for giving reasons, and is not an independent interpretation of the statutory requirements.

~~Rule 4.407. Rules of construction~~

~~As used in these rules:~~

- ~~(a) “Shall” is mandatory, “should” is advisory, “may” is permissive.~~
- ~~(b) The past, present, and future tenses include the others.~~
- ~~(c) The singular includes the plural.~~

Rule 4.408. Criteria not exclusive; sequence not significant

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

- 1 (a) The enumeration in these rules of some criteria for the making of discretionary
2 sentencing decisions does not prohibit the application of additional criteria reasonably
3 related to the decision being made. Any such additional criteria ~~shall~~ must be stated
4 on the record by the sentencing judge.
- 6 (b) The order in which criteria are listed does not indicate their relative weight or 7 importance.

Advisory Committee Comment

10
11 Enumerations of criteria in these rules are not exclusive. The variety of circumstances presented in felony
12 cases is so great that no listing of criteria could claim to be all-inclusive. (Cf., Evid. Code, § 351.)
13

14 The relative significance of various criteria will vary from case to case. This, like the question of 15 applicability of various criteria, will be decided by the sentencing judge.
16

17 Rule 4.409. Consideration of criteria
18

19 Relevant criteria enumerated in these rules ~~shall~~ must be considered by the sentencing
20 judge, and ~~shall~~ will be deemed to have been considered unless the record affirmatively
21 reflects otherwise.
22

Advisory Committee Comment

23
24
25 Relevant criteria are those applicable to the facts in the record of the case; not all criteria will be relevant to 26 each case. The judge's duty is similar to the duty to consider the probation officer's report. Section 1203.
27

28 In deeming the sentencing judge to have considered relevant criteria, the rule applies the presumption of 29 Evidence Code, section 664 that official duty has been regularly performed. See People v. Moran (1970) 1
30 Cal.3d 755 (trial court presumed to have considered referring eligible defendant to California Youth 31 Authority in absence of any showing to the contrary, citing Evidence Code, section 664).
32

33 Rule 4.410. General objectives in sentencing
34

- 35 (a) General objectives of sentencing include:
36

- 37 (1) Protecting society;
38
- 39 (2) Punishing the defendant;
40
- 41 (3) Encouraging the defendant to lead a law-abiding life in the future and deterring
42 him or her from future offenses;
43
- 44 (4) Deterring others from criminal conduct by demonstrating its consequences;
45

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

(5) Preventing the defendant from committing new crimes by isolating him or her for the period of incarceration;

(6) Securing restitution for the victims of crime; and

(7) Achieving uniformity in sentencing.

(b) Because in some instances these objectives may suggest inconsistent dispositions, the sentencing judge must consider which objectives are of primary importance in the particular case. The sentencing judge should be guided by statutory statements of policy, the criteria in these rules, and the facts and circumstances of the case.

Advisory Committee Comment (2003)

Statutory expressions of policy include:

Welfare and Institutions Code, section 1820 et seq., which provides partnership funding for county juvenile ranches, camps, or forestry camps.

Section 1203(b)(3), which requires that eligible defendants be considered for probation and authorizes probation if circumstances in mitigation are found or justice would be served.

Section 1170(a)(1), which expresses the policies of uniformity, proportionality of prison terms to the seriousness of the offense, and the use of imprisonment as punishment.

Other statutory provisions ~~which~~ that prohibit the grant of probation in particular cases.

Rule 4.411. Presentence investigations and reports

(a) Eligible defendant

If the defendant is eligible for probation, the court ~~shall~~ must refer the matter to the probation officer for a presentence investigation and report. Waivers of the presentence report should not be accepted except in unusual circumstances.

(b) Ineligible defendant

Even if the defendant is not eligible for probation, the court should refer the matter to the probation officer for a presentence investigation and report.

(c) Supplemental reports

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

The court ~~shall~~ must order a supplemental probation officer's report in preparation for sentencing proceedings that occur a significant period of time after the original report was prepared.

(d) Purpose of presentence investigation report

Probation officers' reports are used by judges in determining the appropriate length of a prison sentence and by the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, Division of Adult Operations in deciding ~~upon~~ on the type of facility and program in which to place a defendant, and are also used in deciding whether probation is appropriate. Section 1203c requires a probation officer's report on every person sentenced to prison; ordering the report before sentencing in probation-ineligible cases will help ensure a well-prepared report.

Advisory Committee Comment (2003)

Section 1203 requires a presentence report in every felony case in which the defendant is eligible for probation. Because such a probation investigation and report are valuable to the judge and to the jail and prison authorities, waivers of the report and requests for immediate sentencing are discouraged, even when the defendant and counsel have agreed to a prison sentence.

Notwithstanding a defendant's statutory ineligibility for probation, a presentence investigation and report should be ordered to assist the court in deciding the appropriate sentence and to facilitate compliance with section 1203c.

This rule does not prohibit pre-conviction, pre-plea reports as authorized by section 1203.7.

Subdivision (c) is based on case law that generally requires a supplemental report if the defendant is to be resentenced a significant time after the original sentencing, as, for example, after a remand by an appellate court, or after the apprehension of a defendant who failed to appear at sentencing. The rule is not intended to expand on the requirements of those cases.

The rule does not require a new investigation and report if a recent report is available and can be incorporated by reference and there is no indication of changed circumstances. This is particularly true if a report is needed only for the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation because the defendant has waived a report and agreed to a prison sentence. If a full report was prepared in another case in the same or another jurisdiction within the preceeding six months, during which time the defendant was in custody, and that report is available to the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, it is unlikely that a new investigation is needed.

Rule 4.411.5. Probation officer's presentence investigation report

(a) Contents

A probation officer's presentence investigation report in a felony case ~~shall~~ must include at least the following:

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

(1) A face sheet showing at least:

(i) (A) The defendant's name and other identifying data;

(ii) (B) The case number;

(iii) (C) The crime of which the defendant was convicted;

(iv) (D) The date of commission of the crime, the date of conviction, and any other dates relevant to sentencing;

(v) (E) The defendant's custody status; and

(vi) (F) The terms of any agreement ~~upon~~ on which a plea of guilty was based.

(2) The facts and circumstances of the crime and the defendant's arrest, including information concerning any co-defendants and the status or disposition of their cases. The source of all such information ~~shall~~ must be stated.

(3) A summary of the defendant's record of prior criminal conduct, including convictions as an adult and sustained petitions in juvenile delinquency proceedings. Records of an arrest or charge not leading to a conviction or the sustaining of a petition ~~shall~~ may not be included unless supported by facts concerning the arrest or charge.

(4) Any statement made by the defendant to the probation officer, or a summary thereof, including the defendant's account of the circumstances of the crime.

(5) Information concerning the victim of the crime, including:

(i) (A) The victim's statement or a summary thereof, if available;

(ii) (B) The amount of the victim's loss, and whether or not it is covered by insurance; and

(iii) (C) Any information required by law.

(6) Any relevant facts concerning the defendant's social history, including ~~but not limited to~~ those categories enumerated in section 1203.10, organized under appropriate subheadings, including, whenever applicable, "Family," "Education," "Employment and income," "Military," "Medical/psychological,"

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

“Record of substance abuse or lack thereof,” and any other relevant subheadings.

(7) Collateral information, including written statements from:

(i) (A) Official sources such as defense and prosecuting attorneys, police (subsequent to any police reports used to summarize the crime), probation and parole officers who have had prior experience with the defendant, and correctional personnel who observed the defendant’s behavior during any period of presentence incarceration; and

(ii) (B) Interested persons, including family members and others who have written letters concerning the defendant.

(8) An evaluation of factors relating to disposition. This section ~~shall~~ must include:

(i) (A) A reasoned discussion of the defendant’s suitability and eligibility for probation, and, if probation is recommended, a proposed plan including recommendation for the conditions of probation and any special need for supervision;

(ii) (B) If a prison sentence is recommended or is likely to be imposed, a reasoned discussion of aggravating and mitigating factors affecting the sentence length; and

(iii) (C) A discussion of the defendant’s ability to make restitution, pay any fine or penalty ~~which that~~ may be recommended, or satisfy any special conditions of probation ~~which that~~ are proposed.

Discussions of factors affecting suitability for probation and affecting the sentence length ~~shall~~ must refer to any sentencing rule directly relevant to the facts of the case, but no rule ~~shall~~ may be cited without a reasoned discussion of its relevance and relative importance.

(9) The probation officer’s recommendation. When requested by the sentencing judge or by standing instructions to the probation department, the report ~~shall~~ must include recommendations concerning the length of any prison term that may be imposed, including the base term, the imposition of concurrent or consecutive sentences, and the imposition or striking of the additional terms for enhancements charged and found.

(10) Detailed information on presentence time spent by the defendant in custody, including the beginning and ending dates of the period(s) or periods of custody;

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

the existence of any other sentences imposed on the defendant during the period of custody; the amount of good behavior, work, or participation credit to which the defendant is entitled; and whether the sheriff or other officer holding custody, the prosecution, or the defense wishes that a hearing be held for the purposes of denying good behavior, work, or participation credit.

- (11) A statement of mandatory and recommended restitution, restitution fines, other fines, and costs to be assessed against the defendant, including chargeable probation services and attorney fees under section 987.8 when appropriate, findings concerning the defendant's ability to pay, and a recommendation whether any restitution order ~~shall~~ should become a judgment under section 1203(j) if unpaid.

(b) Format

The report ~~shall~~ must be on paper 8-½ by 11 inches in size and ~~shall~~ must follow the sequence set out in ~~subdivision~~ (a) to the extent possible.

(c) Sources

The source of all information ~~shall~~ must be stated. Any person who has furnished information included in the report ~~shall~~ must be identified by name or official capacity unless a reason is given for not disclosing the person's identity.

Rule 4.412. Reasons.—agreement to punishment as an adequate reason and as abandonment of certain claims

(a) Defendant's agreement as reason

It is an adequate reason for a sentence or other disposition that the defendant, personally and by counsel, has expressed agreement that it be imposed and the prosecuting attorney has not expressed an objection to it. The agreement and lack of objection ~~shall~~ must be recited on the record. This section does not authorize a sentence that is not otherwise authorized by law.

(b) Agreement to sentence abandons section 654 claim

By agreeing to a specified prison term personally and by counsel, a defendant who is sentenced to that term or a shorter one abandons any claim that a component of the sentence violates section 654's prohibition of double punishment, unless that claim is asserted at the time the agreement is recited on the record.

Advisory Committee Comment (2003)

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

Subdivision (a). This subdivision is intended to relieve the court of an obligation to give reasons if the sentence or other disposition is one that the defendant has accepted and to which the prosecutor expresses no objection. The judge may choose to give reasons for the sentence even though not obligated to do so.

Judges should also be aware that there may be statutory limitations on “plea bargaining” or on the entry of a guilty plea on the condition that no more than a particular sentence will be imposed. At the time this comment was drafted, such limitations appeared, for example, in sections 1192.5 and 1192.7.

Subdivision (b). This subdivision is based on the fact that a defendant who, with the advice of counsel, expresses agreement to a specified prison term normally is acknowledging that the term is appropriate for his or her total course of conduct. This subdivision applies to both ~~to~~ determinate and indeterminate terms.

Rule 4.413. Probation eligibility when probation is limited

(a) Consideration of eligibility

The court ~~shall~~ must determine whether the defendant is eligible for probation.

(b) Probation in unusual cases

If the defendant comes under a statutory provision prohibiting probation “except in unusual cases where the interests of justice would best be served,” or a substantially equivalent provision, the court should apply the criteria in ~~subdivision~~ (c) to evaluate whether the statutory limitation on probation is overcome; and if it is, the court should then apply the criteria in rule 4.414 to decide whether to grant probation.

(c) Facts showing unusual case

The following facts may indicate the existence of an unusual case in which probation may be granted if otherwise appropriate:

(1) Facts relating to basis for limitation on probation

A fact or circumstance indicating that the basis for the statutory limitation on probation, although technically present, is not fully applicable to the case, including:

- (i) (A) The fact or circumstance giving rise to the limitation on probation is, in this case, substantially less serious than the circumstances typically present in other cases involving the same probation limitation, and the defendant has no recent record of committing similar crimes or crimes of violence; and

APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

(ii) (B) The current offense is less serious than a prior felony conviction that is the cause of the limitation on probation, and the defendant has been free from incarceration and serious violation of the law for a substantial time before the current offense.

(2) Facts limiting defendant's culpability

A fact or circumstance not amounting to a defense, but reducing the defendant's culpability for the offense, including:

(i) (A) The defendant participated in the crime under circumstances of great provocation, coercion, or duress not amounting to a defense, and the defendant has no recent record of committing crimes of violence;

(ii) (B) The crime was committed because of a mental condition not amounting to a defense, and there is a high likelihood that the defendant would respond favorably to mental health care and treatment that would be required as a condition of probation; and

(iii) (C) The defendant is youthful or aged, and has no significant record of prior criminal offenses.

Rule 4.414. Criteria affecting probation

Criteria affecting the decision to grant or deny probation include: facts relating to the crime and facts relating to the defendant.

(a) Facts relating to the crime

Facts relating to the crime, ~~including~~ include:

(1) The nature, seriousness, and circumstances of the crime as compared to other instances of the same crime;

(2) Whether the defendant was armed with or used a weapon;

(3) The vulnerability of the victim;

(4) Whether the defendant inflicted physical or emotional injury;

(5) The degree of monetary loss to the victim;

(6) Whether the defendant was an active or a passive participant;

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

- (7) Whether the crime was committed because of an unusual circumstance, such as great provocation, which is unlikely to recur;:
- (8) Whether the manner in which the crime was carried out demonstrated criminal sophistication or professionalism on the part of the defendant;: and
- (9) Whether the defendant took advantage of a position of trust or confidence to commit the crime.

(b) Facts relating to the defendant

Facts relating to the defendant, ~~including~~ include :

- (1) Prior record of criminal conduct, whether as an adult or a juvenile, including the recency and frequency of prior crimes; and whether the prior record indicates a pattern of regular or increasingly serious criminal conduct;:
- (2) Prior performance on probation or parole and present probation or parole status;:
- (3) Willingness to comply with the terms of probation;:
- (4) Ability to comply with reasonable terms of probation as indicated by the defendant's age, education, health, mental faculties, history of alcohol or other substance abuse, family background and ties, employment and military service history, and other relevant factors;:
- (5) The likely effect of imprisonment on the defendant and his or her dependents;:
- (6) The adverse collateral consequences on the defendant's life resulting from the felony conviction;:
- (7) Whether the defendant is remorseful;: and
- (8) The likelihood that if not imprisoned the defendant will be a danger to others.

Advisory Committee Comment (2003)

The sentencing judge's discretion to grant probation is unaffected by the Uniform Determinate Sentencing Act (~~section~~ § 1170(a)(3)).

The decision whether to grant probation is normally based on an overall evaluation of the likelihood that the defendant will live successfully in the general community. Each criterion points to evidence that the likelihood of success is great or small. A single criterion will rarely be determinative; in most cases, the sentencing judge will have to balance favorable and unfavorable facts.

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT

Under criteria (b)(3) and (b)(4), it is appropriate to consider the defendant's expressions of willingness to comply and ~~their~~ his or her apparent sincerity, and whether the defendant's home and work environment and primary associates will be supportive of the defendant's efforts to comply with the terms of probation, among other factors.

Rule 4.420. Selection of base term of imprisonment

- (a) When a sentence of imprisonment is imposed, or the execution of a sentence of imprisonment is ordered suspended, the sentencing judge ~~shall~~ must select the upper, middle, or lower term on each count for which the defendant has been convicted, as provided in section 1170(b) and these rules. The middle term ~~shall~~ must be selected unless imposition of the upper or lower term is justified by circumstances in aggravation or mitigation.
- (b) Circumstances in aggravation and mitigation ~~shall~~ must be established by a preponderance of the evidence. Selection of the upper term is justified only if, after a consideration of all the relevant facts, the circumstances in aggravation outweigh the circumstances in mitigation. The relevant facts are included in the case record, the probation officer's report, other reports and statements properly received, statements in aggravation or mitigation, and any further evidence introduced at the sentencing hearing. Selection of the lower term is justified only if, considering the same facts, the circumstances in mitigation outweigh the circumstances in aggravation.
- (c) To comply with section 1170(b), a fact charged and found as an enhancement may be used as a reason for imposing the upper term only if the court has discretion to strike the punishment for the enhancement and does so. The use of a fact of an enhancement to impose the upper term of imprisonment is an adequate reason for striking the additional term of imprisonment, regardless of the effect on the total term.
- (d) A fact that is an element of the crime ~~shall~~ may not be used to impose the upper term.
- (e) The reasons for selecting the upper or lower term ~~shall~~ must be stated orally on the record, and ~~shall~~ must include a concise statement of the ultimate facts ~~which~~ that the court deemed to constitute circumstances in aggravation or mitigation justifying the term selected.

Advisory Committee Comment (2004)

The determinate sentencing law authorizes the court to select any of the three possible prison terms even though neither party has requested a deviation from the middle term by formal motion or informal argument. Section 1170(b) requires, however, that the middle term be selected unless there are

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

1 circumstances in aggravation or mitigation of the crime, and requires that the court ~~set forth~~ stated on the
2 record the facts and reasons for imposing the upper or lower term.

4 Thus, the sentencing judge has authority to impose the upper or lower term on his or her own initiative, if
5 circumstances justifying that choice appear ~~upon~~ on an evaluation of the record as a whole.

7 The legislative intent is that, if imprisonment is the sentence choice, the middle term is to constitute the
8 average or usual term. The rule clarifies this intent by specifying that the presence of circumstances
9 justifying the upper or lower term must be established by a preponderance of the evidence, and that those 10 circumstances must outweigh offsetting circumstances. Proof by a preponderance of the evidence is the 11 standard in the absence of a statute or a decisional law to the contrary (Evid. Code, § 115), and appears 12 appropriate here, since there is no requirement that sentencing decisions be based on the same quantum of 13 proof as is required to establish guilt. See Williams v. New York (1949) 337 U.S. 241.

14
15 Determining whether circumstances in aggravation or mitigation preponderate is a qualitative, rather than a 16 quantitative, process. It cannot be determined by simply counting identified circumstances of each kind.

17
18 Present law prohibits dual punishment for the same act (or fact) but permits the same act or fact to be 19 considered in denying probation and in selecting the upper prison term. People v. Edwards (1976) 18 Cal.3d
20 796 (prior felony conviction, an element of the offense, also brought defendant within former section
21 1203(d)(2) limitation on probation to person with prior felony convictions), citing People v. Perry (1974)
22 42 Cal.App.3d 451, 460, and other cases.

23
24 The rule makes it clear that a fact charged and found as an enhancement may, in the alternative, be used in 25 aggravation.

26
27 Note that under rule 4.425(b), a fact used to impose the upper term cannot be used to impose a consecutive 28 sentence.

29
30 People v. Riolo (1983) 33 Cal.3d 223, 227 (and note 5 on 227) held that section 1170.1(a) does not require
31 the judgment to ~~set forth~~ state the base term (upper, middle, or lower) and enhancements, computed
32 independently, on counts that are subject to automatic reduction under the one-third formula of section 33 1170.1(a).

34
35 Even when sentencing is ~~pursuant to~~ under section 1170.1, however, it is essential to determine the base
36 term and specific enhancements for each count independently, in order to know which is the principal term
37 count. The principal term count must be determined before any calculation is made using the one-third 38 formula for subordinate terms.

39
40 In addition, the base term (upper, middle, or lower) for each count must be determined to arrive at an 41 informed decision whether to make terms consecutive or concurrent; and the base term for each count must 42 be stated in the judgment when sentences are concurrent or are fully consecutive (i.e., not subject to the 43 one-third rule of section 1170.1(a)).

44
45 Rule 4.421. Circumstances in aggravation

46
47 Circumstances in aggravation include: facts relating to the crime and facts relating to the 48 defendant.

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

(a) Facts relating to the crime

Facts relating to the crime, whether or not charged or chargeable as enhancements, ~~including~~ include the fact that:

- (1) The crime involved great violence, great bodily harm, threat of great bodily harm, or other acts disclosing a high degree of cruelty, viciousness, or callousness;
- (2) The defendant was armed with or used a weapon at the time of the commission of the crime;
- (3) The victim was particularly vulnerable;
- (4) The defendant induced others to participate in the commission of the crime or occupied a position of leadership or dominance of other participants in its commission;
- (5) The defendant induced a minor to commit or assist in the commission of the crime;
- (6) The defendant threatened witnesses, unlawfully prevented or dissuaded witnesses from testifying, suborned perjury, or in any other way illegally interfered with the judicial process;
- (7) The defendant was convicted of other crimes for which consecutive sentences could have been imposed but for which concurrent sentences are being imposed;
- (8) The manner in which the crime was carried out indicates planning, sophistication, or professionalism;
- (9) The crime involved an attempted or actual taking or damage of great monetary value;
- (10) The crime involved a large quantity of contraband; and
- (11) The defendant took advantage of a position of trust or confidence to commit the offense.

(b) Facts relating to the defendant

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

Facts relating to the defendant, ~~including~~ include the fact that:

- (1) The defendant has engaged in violent conduct ~~which~~ that indicates a serious danger to society;
- (2) The defendant's prior convictions as an adult or sustained petitions in juvenile delinquency proceedings are numerous or of increasing seriousness;
- (3) The defendant has served a prior prison term;
- (4) The defendant was on probation or parole when the crime was committed; and
- (5) The defendant's prior performance on probation or parole was unsatisfactory.

(c) Other facts

Any other facts statutorily declared to be circumstances in aggravation.

Advisory Committee Comment ~~(2003)~~

Circumstances in aggravation may justify imposition of the upper of three possible prison terms. (Section 1170(b).)

The list of circumstances in aggravation includes some facts ~~which~~ that, if charged and found, may be used to enhance the sentence. The rule does not deal with the dual use of the facts; the statutory prohibition against dual use is included, in part, in rule 4.420.

Conversely, such facts as infliction of bodily harm, being armed with or using a weapon, and a taking or loss of great value may be circumstances in aggravation even if not meeting the statutory definitions for enhancements.

Facts concerning the defendant's prior record and personal history may be considered. By providing that the defendant's prior record and simultaneous convictions of other offenses may not be used both for enhancement and in aggravation, section 1170(b) indicates that these and other facts extrinsic to the commission of the crime may be considered in aggravation in appropriate cases. This resolves whatever ambiguity may arise from the phrase "circumstances in aggravation . . . of the crime." The phrase "circumstances in aggravation or mitigation of the crime" necessarily alludes to extrinsic facts.

Refusal to consider the personal characteristics of the defendant in imposing sentence would also raise serious constitutional questions. The California Supreme Court has held that sentencing decisions must take into account "the nature of the offense and/or the offender, with particular regard to the degree of danger both present to society." In re Rodriguez (1975) 14 Cal.3d 639, 654, quoting In re Lynch (1972) 8 Cal.3d 410, 425. In In re Rodriguez the court released petitioner from further incarceration because "[I]t appears that neither the circumstances of his offense nor his personal characteristics establish a danger to society sufficient to justify such a prolonged period of imprisonment." (Id. at 655.) (Footnote omitted, emphasis added.) "For the determination of sentences, justice generally requires . . . that there be taken into account the circumstances of the offense together with the character and propensities of the offender."

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

(Pennsylvania v. Ashe (1937) 302 U.S. 51, 55, quoted with approval in Gregg v. Georgia (1976) 428 U.S. 153, 189.)

The scope of “circumstances in aggravation or mitigation” under section 1170(b) is, therefore, coextensive with the scope of inquiry under the similar phrase in section 1203.

The 1990 amendments to this rule and the comment included the deletion of most section numbers. These changes recognize changing statutory section numbers and the fact that there are numerous additional code sections related to the rule, including numerous statutory enhancements enacted since the rule was originally adopted.

Former subdivision (a)(4), concerning multiple victims, was deleted to avoid confusion; cases in which that possible circumstance in aggravation was relied on were frequently reversed on appeal because there was only a single victim in a particular count.

Old age or youth of the victim may be circumstances in aggravation; see section 1170.85(b). Other statutory circumstances in aggravation are listed, for example, in sections 1170.7, 1170.71, 1170.75, 1170.8, and 1170.85.

Rule 4.423. Circumstances in mitigation

Circumstances in mitigation include: facts relating to the crime and facts relating to the defendant.

(a) Facts relating to the crime

Facts relating to the crime, ~~including~~ include the fact that:

- (1) The defendant was a passive participant or played a minor role in the crime;
- (2) The victim was an initiator of, willing participant in, or aggressor or provoker of the incident;
- (3) The crime was committed because of an unusual circumstance, such as great provocation, ~~which~~ that is unlikely to recur;
- (4) The defendant participated in the crime under circumstances of coercion or duress, or the criminal conduct was partially excusable for some other reason not amounting to a defense;
- (5) The defendant, with no apparent predisposition to do so, was induced by others to participate in the crime;

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

- 1 (6) The defendant exercised caution to avoid harm to persons or damage to 2 property, or the amounts of money or property taken were deliberately small, or 3 no harm was done or threatened against the victim-; and
5 (7) The defendant believed that he or she had a claim or right to the property taken,
6 or for other reasons mistakenly believed that the conduct was legal-;
8 (8) The defendant was motivated by a desire to provide necessities for his or her 9 family or self-; and
10
11 (9) The defendant suffered from repeated or continuous physical, sexual, or 12 psychological abuse inflicted by the victim of the crime; and the victim of the 13 crime, who inflicted the abuse, was the defendant's spouse, intimate cohabitant, 14 or parent of the defendant's child; and the facts concerning the abuse do not 15 amount to a defense.
16

17 (b) Facts relating to the defendant

18
19 Facts relating to the defendant, ~~including~~ include the fact that:
20

- 21 (1) The defendant has no prior record, or has an insignificant record of criminal 22 conduct, considering the recency and frequency of prior crimes-;
23
24 (2) The defendant was suffering from a mental or physical condition that 25 significantly reduced culpability for the crime-;
26
27 (3) The defendant voluntarily acknowledged wrongdoing ~~prior to~~ before arrest or at 28 an early stage of the criminal process-;
29
30 (4) The defendant is ineligible for probation and but for that ineligibility would 31 have been granted probation-;
32
33 (5) The defendant made restitution to the victim-; and 34
35 (6) The defendant's prior performance on probation or parole was satisfactory.
36

37 Advisory Committee Comment (2003)

38
39 See comment to rule 4.421.
40

41 This rule applies both to mitigation for purposes of motions under section 1170(b) and to circumstances in 42 mitigation justifying the court in striking the additional punishment provided for an enhancement.
43

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

Some listed circumstances can never apply to certain enhancements; for example, “the amounts taken were deliberately small” can never apply to an excessive taking under section 12022.6, and “no harm was done” can never apply to infliction of great bodily injury under section 12022.7. In any case, only the facts present may be considered for their possible effect in mitigation.

See also rule 4.409; only relevant criteria need be considered.

Since only the fact of restitution is considered relevant to mitigation, no reference to the defendant’s financial ability is needed. The omission of a comparable factor from rule 4.421 as a circumstance in aggravation is deliberate.

Rule 4.424. Consideration of applicability of section 654

~~Prior to~~ Before determining whether to impose either concurrent or consecutive sentences on all counts on which the defendant was convicted, the court ~~shall~~ must determine whether the proscription in section 654 against multiple punishments for the same act or omission requires a stay of imposition of sentence on some of the counts.

Rule 4.425. Criteria affecting concurrent or consecutive sentences

Criteria affecting the decision to impose consecutive rather than concurrent sentences include:

(a) Criteria relating to crimes

Facts relating to the crimes, including whether or not:

- (1) The crimes and their objectives were predominantly independent of each other;:
- (2) The crimes involved separate acts of violence or threats of violence;: or
- (3) The crimes were committed at different times or separate places, rather than being committed so closely in time and place as to indicate a single period of aberrant behavior.

(b) Other criteria and limitations

Any circumstances in aggravation or mitigation may be considered in deciding whether to impose consecutive rather than concurrent sentences, except:

- (i) (1) A fact used to impose the upper term;:
- (ii) (2) A fact used to otherwise enhance the defendant’s prison sentence;: and

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

(iii) (3) A fact that is an element of the crime ~~shall~~ may not be used to impose consecutive sentences.

Advisory Committee Comment

The sentencing judge should be aware that there are some cases in which the law mandates consecutive sentences.

Rule 4.426. Violent sex crimes

(a) Multiple violent sex crimes

When a defendant has been convicted of multiple violent sex offenses as defined in section 667.6, the sentencing judge ~~shall~~ must determine whether the crimes involved separate victims or the same victim on separate occasions.

(1) Different victims

If the crimes were committed against different victims, a full, separate, and consecutive term ~~shall~~ must be imposed for a violent sex crime as to each victim, under section 667.6(d).

(2) Same victim, separate occasions

If the crimes were committed against a single victim, the sentencing judge ~~shall~~ must determine whether the crimes were committed on separate occasions. In determining whether there were separate occasions, the sentencing judge ~~shall~~ must consider whether, between the commission of one sex crime and another, the defendant had a reasonable opportunity to reflect ~~upon~~ on his or her actions and nevertheless resumed sexually assaultive behavior. A full, separate, and consecutive term ~~shall~~ must be imposed for each violent sex offense committed on a separate occasion under section 667.6(d).

(b) Same victim, same occasion; other crimes

If the defendant has been convicted of multiple crimes, including at least one violent sex crime, as defined in section 667.6, or if there have been multiple violent sex crimes against a single victim on the same occasion and the sentencing court has decided to impose consecutive sentences, the sentencing judge ~~shall~~ must then determine whether to impose a full, separate, and consecutive sentence under section 667.6(c) for the violent sex crime or crimes ~~in lieu~~ instead of including the violent sex crimes in the computation of the principal and subordinate terms under section 1170.1(a). A decision to impose a fully consecutive sentence under section 667.6(c) is an additional sentence choice ~~which~~ that requires a statement of reasons separate from those given for consecutive sentences, but which may repeat the same reasons. The sentencing judge is to be guided by the criteria listed in rule 4.425, which incorporates rules 4.421 and 4.423, as well as any other reasonably related criteria as provided in rule 4.408.

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT

Advisory Committee Comment (2003)

Section 667.6(d) requires a full, separate, and consecutive term for each of the enumerated violent sex crimes that involve separate victims, or the same victim on separate occasions. Therefore, if there were separate victims or the court found that there were separate occasions, no other reasons are required.

If there have been multiple convictions involving at least one of the enumerated violent sex crimes, the court may impose a full, separate, and consecutive term for each violent sex crime under section 667.6(c). (See People v. Coleman (1989) 48 Cal.3d 112, 161.) A fully consecutive sentence under section 667.6(c) is a sentence choice, which requires a statement of reasons. The court may not use the same fact to impose a sentence ~~pursuant to~~ under section 667.6(c) that was used to impose an upper term. (See rule 4.425(b).) If the court selects the upper term, imposes consecutive sentences, and ~~utilizes~~ uses section 667.6(c), the record must reflect three sentencing choices with three separate statements of reasons, but the same reason may be used for sentencing under section 667.6(c) and to impose consecutive sentences. (See People v. Belmontes (1983) 34 Cal.3d 335, 347–349.)

Rule 4.428. Criteria affecting imposition of enhancements

(a) Imposing or not imposing enhancement

No reason need be given for imposing a term for an enhancement that was charged and found true.

If the judge has statutory discretion to strike the additional term for an enhancement in the furtherance of justice under section 1385(c) or based on circumstances in mitigation, the court may consider and apply any of the circumstances in mitigation enumerated in these rules or, ~~pursuant to~~ under rule 4.408, any other reasonable circumstances in mitigation or in the furtherance of justice that are present.

The judge should not strike the allegation of the enhancement.

(b) Choice from among three possible terms

When the defendant is subject to an enhancement that was charged and found true for which three possible terms are specified by statute, the middle term ~~shall~~ must be imposed unless there are circumstances in aggravation or mitigation or unless, under statutory discretion, the judge strikes the additional term for the enhancement.

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

The upper term may be imposed for an enhancement based on any of the circumstances in aggravation enumerated in these rules or, under rule 4.408, any other reasonable circumstances in aggravation that are present. The lower term may be imposed based ~~upon~~ on any of the circumstances in mitigation enumerated in these rules or, under rule 4.408, any other reasonable circumstances in mitigation that are present.

Advisory Committee Comment (2004)

Subdivision (b) is intended to apply to all enhancements punishable by three possible terms (section 1170.1(d)). This rule applies ~~both~~ to both determinate and indeterminate terms.

Rule 4.431. Proceedings at sentencing to be reported

All proceedings at the time of sentencing ~~shall~~ must be reported.

Advisory Committee Comment (2004)

Reporters' transcripts of the sentencing proceedings are required on appeal (rule ~~31(e)(8)~~ 8.420), and when the defendant is sentenced to prison (section 1203.01).

Rule 4.433. Matters to be considered at time set for sentencing

(a) In every case, at the time set for sentencing ~~pursuant to~~ under section 1191, the sentencing judge ~~shall~~ must hold a hearing at which the judge ~~shall~~ must:

(1) Hear and determine any matters raised by the defendant ~~pursuant to~~ under section 1201; and

(2) Determine whether a defendant who is eligible for probation should be granted or denied probation, unless consideration of probation is expressly waived by the defendant personally and by counsel.

(b) If the imposition of sentence is to be suspended during a period of probation after a conviction by trial, the trial judge ~~shall~~ must make factual findings as to circumstances ~~which~~ that would justify imposition of the upper or lower term if probation is later revoked, based ~~upon~~ on evidence admitted at the trial.

(c) If a sentence of imprisonment is to be imposed, or if the execution of a sentence of imprisonment is to be suspended during a period of probation, the sentencing judge ~~shall~~ must:

(1) Hear evidence in aggravation and mitigation, and determine, ~~pursuant to~~ under section 1170(b), whether to impose the upper, middle, or lower term; and ~~set~~

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

1 ~~forth~~ state on the record the facts and reasons for imposing the upper or lower 2 term.

- 3
- 4 (2) Determine whether any additional term of imprisonment provided for an 5 enhancement charged and found ~~shall~~ will be stricken;
- 6
- 7 (3) Determine whether the sentences ~~shall~~ will be consecutive or concurrent if the 8 defendant has been convicted of multiple crimes;
- 9
- 10 (4) Determine any issues raised by statutory prohibitions on the dual use of facts 11 and statutory limitations on enhancements, as required in rules 4.420(c) and 12 4.447; and
- 13
- 14 (5) Pronounce the court's judgment and sentence, stating the terms thereof and 15 giving reasons for those matters for which reasons are required by law.
- 16
- 17 (d) All these matters ~~shall~~ must be heard and determined at a single hearing unless the 18 sentencing judge otherwise orders in the interests of justice.
- 19
- 20 (e) When a sentence of imprisonment is imposed under ~~subdivision~~ (c) or under rule 21 4.435, the sentencing judge ~~shall~~ must inform the defendant, ~~pursuant to~~ under 22 section 1170(c), of the parole period provided by section 3000 to be served after 23 expiration of the sentence in addition to any period of incarceration for parole
24 violation.

Advisory Committee Comment (2003)

25

26

27

28 This rule summarizes the questions ~~which~~ that the court is required to consider at the time of sentencing, in 29 their logical order.

30

31 Subdivision (a)(2) makes it clear that probation should be considered in every case, without the necessity of 32 any application, unless the defendant is statutorily ineligible for probation.

33

34 Under subdivision (b), when imposition of sentence is to be suspended, the sentencing judge is not to make 35 any determinations as to possible length of a prison term ~~upon~~ on violation of probation (~~section~~ § 1170(b)).
36 If there was a trial, however, the judge must make findings as to circumstances justifying the upper or lower 37 term based on the trial evidence.

38

39 Subdivision (d) makes it clear that all sentencing matters should be disposed of at a single hearing unless 40 strong reasons exist for a continuance.

41

42 Rule 4.435. Sentencing ~~upon~~ on revocation of probation

43

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

- 1 (a) When the defendant violates the terms of probation or is otherwise subject to
2 revocation of probation, the sentencing judge may make any disposition of the case
3 authorized by statute.
- 5 (b) ~~Upon~~ On revocation and termination of probation ~~pursuant to~~ under section 1203.2, 6 when the sentencing judge determines that the defendant ~~shall~~ will be committed to 7 prison:
8
- 9 (1) If the imposition of sentence was previously suspended, the judge ~~shall~~ must 10 impose judgment and sentence after considering any findings previously made 11 and hearing and determining the matters enumerated in rule 4.433(c).
12
- 13 The length of the sentence ~~shall~~ must be based on circumstances existing at the 14 time probation was granted, and subsequent events may not be considered in 15 selecting the base term ~~nor~~ or in deciding whether to strike the additional 16 punishment for enhancements charged and found.
17
- 18 (2) If the execution of sentence was previously suspended, the judge ~~shall~~ must 19 order that the judgment previously pronounced be in full force and effect and 20 that the defendant be committed to the custody of the Secretary of the 21 Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation for the term prescribed in that 22 judgment.
23

Advisory Committee Comment

24
25
26 Subdivision (a) makes it clear that there is no change in the court's power, ~~upon~~ on finding cause to revoke
27 and terminate probation under section 1203.2(a), to continue the defendant on probation.
28

29 The restriction of subdivision (b)(1) is based on In re Rodriguez (1975) 14 Cal.3d 639, 652: "[T]he primary 30 term must reflect the circumstances existing at the time of the offense."
31

32 A judge imposing a prison sentence ~~upon~~ on revocation of probation will have the power granted by section
33 1170(d) to recall the commitment on his or her own motion within 120 days after the date of commitment,
34 and the power under section 1203.2(e) to set aside the revocation of probation, for good cause, within 30
35 days after the court has notice that execution of the sentence has commenced.
36

37 Consideration of conduct occurring ~~subsequent to~~ after the granting of probation should be distinguished 38 from consideration of preprobation conduct that is discovered ~~subsequent to~~ after the granting of an order of 39 probation and ~~prior to~~ before sentencing following a revocation and termination of probation. If the 40 preprobation conduct affects or nullifies a determination made at the time probation was granted, the 41 preprobation conduct may properly be considered at sentencing following revocation and termination of 42 probation. (See People v. Griffith (1984) 153 Cal.App.3d 796, 801.)
43

44 Rule 4.437. Statements in aggravation and mitigation
45

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

1 (a) Time for filing and service

3 Statements in aggravation and mitigation referred to in section 1170(b) ~~shall~~ must be
4 filed and served at least four days ~~prior to~~ before the time set for sentencing ~~pursuant~~ 5 ~~to~~ under section 1191 or the time set for pronouncing judgment ~~upon~~ on revocation of 6 probation ~~pursuant to~~ under section 1203.2(c) if imposition of sentence was 7 previously suspended.

9 (b) Combined statement

10
11 A party seeking consideration of circumstances in aggravation or mitigation may file
12 and serve a statement ~~pursuant to~~ under section 1170(b) and this rule.

13
14 (c) Contents of statement

15
16 A statement in aggravation or mitigation ~~shall~~ must include:

- 17
18 (1) A summary of facts ~~which~~ that the party relies ~~upon~~ on as circumstances in 19 aggravation or mitigation justifying imposition of the upper or lower term; and 20
21 (2) Notice of intention to dispute facts or offer evidence in aggravation or 22 mitigation at the sentencing hearing. The statement ~~shall~~ must generally
23 describe the evidence to be offered, including a description of any documents
24 and the names and expected substance of the testimony of any witnesses. No
25 evidence in aggravation or mitigation may be introduced at the sentencing 26 hearing unless it was described in the statement, or unless its admission is 27 permitted by the sentencing judge in the interests of justice.

28
29 (d) Support required for assertions of fact

30
31 Assertions of fact in a statement in aggravation or mitigation ~~shall~~ must be 32 disregarded unless they are supported by the record in the case, the probation
33 officer's report or other reports properly filed in the case, or other competent 34 evidence.

35
36 (e) Disputed facts

37
38 In the event the parties dispute the facts ~~upon~~ on which the conviction rested, the 39 court ~~shall~~ must conduct a presentence hearing and make appropriate corrections,
40 additions, or deletions in the presentence probation report or order a revised report.

41
42 Advisory Committee Comment (2003)

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

Section 1170(b) states in part:

“At least four days prior to the time set for imposition of judgment, either party or the victim, or the family of the victim if the victim is deceased, may submit a statement in aggravation or mitigation to dispute facts in the record or the probation officer’s report, or to present additional facts.”

This provision means that the statement is a document giving notice of intention to dispute facts in the record or the probation officer’s report, or to present additional facts.

The statement itself cannot be the medium for presenting new facts, or for rebutting facts already presented by competent evidence, because the statement is a unilateral presentation by one party or counsel ~~which~~ that will not necessarily have any indicia of reliability. To allow its factual assertions to be considered in the absence of corroborating evidence would, therefore, constitute a denial of due process of law in violation of the United States (~~Amendment 14~~ 14th Amend.) and California (art. I, § 7) Constitutions.

“[I]t is now clear that the sentencing process, as well as the trial itself, must satisfy the requirements of the Due Process Clause. Even though the defendant has no substantive right to a particular sentence within the range authorized by statute, the sentencing is a critical stage of the criminal proceeding at which he is entitled to the effective assistance of counsel The defendant has a legitimate interest in the character of the procedure which leads to the imposition of sentence” Gardner v. Florida (1977) 430 U.S. 349, 358.

The use of probation officers’ reports is permissible because the officers are trained objective investigators. Williams v. New York (1949) 337 U.S. 241. Compare sections 1203 and 1204. People v. Peterson (1973) 9 Cal.3d 717, 727, expressly approved the holding of United States v. Weston (9th Cir. 1971) 448 F.2d 626 that due process is offended by sentencing on the basis of unsubstantiated allegations ~~which~~ that were denied by the defendant. Cf., In re Hancock (1977) 67 Cal.App.3d 943, 949.

The requirement that the statement include notice of intention to rely on new evidence will enhance fairness to both sides by avoiding surprise and helping to ~~assure~~ ensure that the time limit on pronouncing sentence is met.

Rule 4.447. Limitations on enhancements

No finding of an enhancement ~~shall~~ may be stricken or dismissed because imposition of the term ~~is~~ is either is prohibited by law or exceeds limitations on the imposition of multiple enhancements. The sentencing judge ~~shall~~ must impose sentence for the aggregate term of imprisonment computed without reference to those prohibitions and limitations, and ~~shall~~ must thereupon stay execution of so much of the term as is prohibited or exceeds the applicable limit. The stay ~~shall~~ will become permanent ~~upon~~ on the defendant’s service of the portion of the sentence not stayed.

Advisory Committee Comment (2004)

Statutory restrictions may prohibit or limit the imposition of an enhancement in certain situations. (See, for example, sections 186.22(b)(1), 667(a)(2), 667.61(f), 1170.1(f) and (g), 12022.53(e)(2) and (f), and Vehicle Code section 23558.)

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

Present practice of staying execution is followed to avoid violating a statutory prohibition or exceeding a statutory limitation, while preserving the possibility of imposition of the stayed portion should a reversal on appeal reduce the unstayed portion of the sentence. See People v. Niles (1964) 227 Cal.App.2d 749, 756.

Only the portion of a sentence or component thereof that exceeds a limitation is prohibited, and this rule provides a procedure for that situation. This rule applies ~~both~~ to both determinate and indeterminate terms.

Rule 4.451. Sentence consecutive to indeterminate term or to term in other jurisdiction

(a) When a defendant is sentenced under section 1170 and the sentence is to run consecutively to a sentence imposed under section 1168(b) in the same or another proceeding, the judgment ~~shall~~ must specify the determinate term imposed under section 1170 computed without reference to the indeterminate sentence, ~~shall~~ must order that the determinate term ~~shall~~ be served consecutively to the sentence under section 1168(b), and ~~shall~~ must identify the proceedings in which the indeterminate sentence was imposed. The term under section 1168(b), and the date of its completion or parole date, and the sequence in which the sentences are deemed served, will be determined by correctional authorities as provided by law.

(b) When a defendant is sentenced under section 1170 and the sentence is to run consecutively to a sentence imposed by a court of the United States or of another state or territory, the judgment ~~shall~~ must specify the determinate term imposed under section 1170 computed without reference to the sentence imposed by the other jurisdiction, ~~shall~~ must order that the determinate term ~~shall~~ be served commencing ~~upon~~ on the completion of the sentence imposed by the other jurisdiction, and ~~shall~~ must identify the other jurisdiction and the proceedings in which the other sentence was imposed.

Advisory Committee Comment (2003)

The provisions of section 1170.1(a), which use a one-third formula to calculate subordinate consecutive terms, can logically be applied only when all the sentences are imposed under section 1170. Indeterminate sentences are imposed under section 1168(b). Since the duration of the indeterminate term cannot be known to the court, subdivision (a) ~~sets forth~~ states the only feasible mode of sentencing. (See People v. Felix (2000) 22 Cal.4th 651, 654–657; People v. McGahuey (1981) 121 Cal.App.3d 524, 530–532.)

On the authority to sentence consecutively to the sentence of another jurisdiction and the effect of such a sentence, see In re Helpman (1968) 267 Cal.App.2d 307 and cases cited at note 3, id. at 310. The mode of sentencing required by subdivision (b) is necessary to avoid the illogical conclusion that the total of the consecutive sentences will depend on whether the other jurisdiction or California is the first to pronounce judgment.

Rule 4.452. Determinate sentence consecutive to prior determinate sentence

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

1 If a determinate sentence is imposed ~~pursuant to~~ under section 1170.1(a) consecutive to
2 one or more determinate sentences imposed previously in the same court or in other courts,
3 the court in the current case ~~shall~~ must pronounce a single aggregate term, as defined in 4 section 1170.1(a), stating the result of combining the previous and current sentences. In 5 those situations:

- 6
- 7 (1) The sentences on all determinately sentenced counts in all of the cases on which a 8 sentence was or is being imposed ~~shall~~ must be combined as though they were all 9 counts in the current case.
- 10
- 11 (2) The judge in the current case ~~shall~~ must make a new determination of which count, in 12 the combined cases, represents the principal term, as defined in section 1170.1(a).
- 13
- 14 (3) Discretionary decisions of the judges in the previous cases ~~shall~~ may not be changed
15 by the judge in the current case. Such decisions include the decision that a term other 16 than the middle term was justified by circumstances in mitigation or aggravation, 17 making counts in prior cases concurrent with or consecutive to each other, or the 18 decision that circumstances in mitigation or in the furtherance of justice justified
19 striking the punishment for an enhancement.
- 20

21 Rule 4.453. Commitments to nonpenal institutions

22

23 When a defendant is convicted of a crime for which sentence could be imposed under 24 Penal Code section 1170 and the court orders that he or she be committed to the 25 California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, Division of Juvenile Justice
26 under Welfare and Institutions Code section 1731.5, the order of commitment must 27 specify the term of imprisonment to which the defendant would have been sentenced.
28 The term is determined as provided by Penal Code sections 1170 and 1170.1 and 29 these rules, as though a sentence of imprisonment were to be imposed.

30

31 Advisory Committee Comment-(2003)

32

33 Commitments to the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, Division of Juvenile Justice (formerly 34 Youth Authority) ~~commitments~~ cannot exceed the maximum possible incarceration in an adult institution
35 for the same crime. (See People v. Olivas (1976) 17 Cal.3d 236.)

36

37 Under the indeterminate sentencing law, the receiving institution knew, as a matter of law from the record
38 of the conviction, the maximum potential period of imprisonment for the crime of which the defendant was 39 convicted.

40

41 Under the Uniform Determinate Sentencing Act, the court's discretion as to length of term leaves doubt as 42 to the maximum term when only the record of convictions is present.

Rule 4.470. Notification of appeal rights in felony cases

After imposing sentence or making an order deemed to be a final judgment in a criminal case ~~upon~~ on conviction after trial, or after imposing sentence following a revocation of probation, except where the revocation is after the defendant's admission of violation of probation, the court ~~shall~~ must advise the defendant of his or her right to appeal, of the necessary steps and time for taking an appeal, and of the right of an indigent defendant to have counsel appointed by the reviewing court. A reporter's transcript of the proceedings required by this rule ~~shall~~ must be forthwith prepared and certified by the reporter and filed with the clerk.

Rule 4.472. Determination of presentence custody time credit

At the time of sentencing, the court ~~shall~~ must cause to be recorded on the judgment or commitment the total time in custody to be credited ~~upon~~ on the sentence under sections 2900.5, 2933.1(c), and 2933.2(c). ~~Upon~~ On referral of the defendant to the probation officer for an investigation and report under section 1203(b) or 1203(g), or ~~upon~~ on setting a date for sentencing in the absence of a referral, the court ~~shall~~ must direct the sheriff, probation officer, or other appropriate person to report to the court and notify the defendant or defense counsel and prosecuting attorney within a reasonable time ~~prior to~~ before the date set for sentencing as to the number of days that defendant has been in custody and for which he or she may be entitled to credit. Rule 4.480. Judge's statement under section 1203.01

A sentencing judge's statement of his or her views under section 1203.01 respecting a person sentenced to the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, Division of Adult Operations is required only in the event that no probation report is filed. Even though it is not required, however, a statement should be submitted by the judge in any case in which he or she believes that the correctional handling and the determination of term and parole should be influenced by information not contained in other court records.

The purpose of a section 1203.01 statement is to provide assistance to the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, Division of Adult Operations in its programming and institutional assignment and to the Board of Parole Hearings with reference to term fixing and parole release of persons sentenced indeterminately, and parole waiver of persons sentenced determinately. It may amplify any reasons for the sentence ~~which~~ that may bear on a possible suggestion by the Secretary of the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation or the Board of Parole Hearings that the sentence and commitment be recalled and the defendant be resentenced. To be of maximum assistance to these agencies, a judge's statements should contain individualized comments concerning the convicted offender, any special circumstances ~~which~~ that led to a prison sentence rather than local

Chapter 2. Habeas Corpus

Rule 4.550. Habeas corpus application and definitions

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

(a) Application

This ~~rule~~ chapter applies to habeas corpus proceedings in the superior court under Penal Code section 1473 et seq. or any other provision of law authorizing relief from unlawful confinement or unlawful conditions of confinement.

(b) Definitions

In this ~~rule~~ chapter, the following definitions apply:

- (1) A “petition for writ of habeas corpus” is the petitioner’s initial filing that commences a proceeding.
- (2) An “order to show cause” is an order directing the respondent to file a return. The order to show cause is issued if the petitioner has made a prima facie showing that he or she is entitled to relief; it does not grant the relief requested. An order to show cause may also be referred to as “granting the writ.”
- (3) The “return” is the respondent’s statement of reasons that the court should not grant the relief requested by the petitioner.
- (4) The “denial” is the petitioner’s pleading in response to the return. The denial may be also referred to as the “traverse.”
- (5) An “evidentiary hearing” is a hearing held by the trial court to resolve contested factual issues.
- (6) An “order on writ of habeas corpus” is the court’s order granting or denying the relief sought by the petitioner.

Rule 4.551. Habeas corpus proceedings

(a) Petition; form and court ruling

- (1) Except as provided in ~~subdivision~~ (2), the petition must be on the ~~form approved by the Judicial Council, Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus~~ (form MC-275), and must be served as required in Penal Code section 1475.
- (2) For good cause, a court may also accept for filing a petition that does not comply with ~~subdivision~~ (a)(1). A petition submitted by an attorney need not be on the Judicial Council form. However, a petition that is not on the Judicial Council form must comply with Penal Code section 1474 and must contain the pertinent information specified in the Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus (form

APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

MC-275), including the information required regarding other petitions, motions, or applications filed in any court with respect to the conviction, commitment, or issue.

- (3) (A) ~~Upon~~ On filing, the clerk of the court must immediately deliver the petition to the presiding judge or his or her designee. The court must rule on a petition for writ of habeas corpus within 60 days after the petition is filed.
- (B) If the court fails to rule on the petition within 60 days of its filing, the petitioner may file a notice and request for ruling.
- (i) The petitioner's notice and request for ruling must include a declaration stating the date the petition was filed and the date of the notice and request for ruling, and indicating that the petitioner has not received a ruling on the petition. A copy of the original petition must be attached to the notice and request for ruling.
- (ii) If the presiding judge or his or her designee determines that the notice is complete and the court has failed to rule, the presiding judge, or his or her designee, must assign the petition to a judge and calendar the matter for a decision without appearances within 30 days of the filing of the notice and request for ruling. If the judge assigned by the presiding judge rules on the petition ~~prior to~~ before the date the petition is calendared for decision, the matter may be taken off calendar.
- (4) For the purposes of ~~subdivision~~ (a)(3), the court rules on the petition by:
- (A) Issuing an order to show cause under ~~subdivision~~ (c);
- (B) Denying the petition for writ of habeas corpus; or
- (C) Requesting an informal response to the petition for writ of habeas corpus under ~~subdivision~~ (b).
- (5) The court must issue an order to show cause or deny the petition within 45 days after receipt of an informal response requested under ~~subdivision~~ (b) ~~of this rule~~.

(b) Informal response

- (1) Before passing on the petition, the court may request an informal response from:

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

1 (A) The respondent or real party in interest; or

3 (B) The custodian of any record pertaining to the petitioner's case, directing 4 the custodian to produce the record or a certified copy to be filed with the 5 clerk of the court.

7 (2) A copy of the request must be sent to the petitioner. The informal response, if 8 any, must be served ~~upon~~ on the petitioner by the party of whom the request is 9 made. The informal response must be in writing and must be served and filed
10 within 15 days. If any informal response is filed, the court must notify the 11 petitioner that he or she may reply to the informal response within 15 days from 12 the date of service of the response ~~upon~~ on the petitioner. If the informal 13 response consists of records or copies of records, a copy of every record and 14 document furnished to the court must be furnished to the petitioner.

15
16 (3) After receiving an informal response, the court may not deny the petition until 17 the petitioner has filed a timely reply to the informal response or the 15-day
18 period provided for a reply under ~~subdivision~~ (b)(2) has expired.

19
20 (c) Order to show cause

21
22 (1) The court must issue an order to show cause if the petitioner has made a prima
23 facie showing that he or she is entitled to relief. In doing so, the court takes 24 petitioner's factual allegations as true and makes a preliminary assessment
25 regarding whether the petitioner would be entitled to relief if his or her factual
26 allegations were proved. If so, the court must issue an order to show cause.

27
28 (2) ~~Upon~~ On issuing an order to show cause, the court must appoint counsel for any 29 unrepresented petitioner who desires but cannot afford counsel.

30
31 (3) An order to show cause is a determination that the petitioner has made a
32 showing that he or she may be entitled to relief. It does not grant the relief 33 sought in the petition.

34
35 (d) Return

36
37 If an order to show cause is issued as provided in ~~subdivision~~ (c), the respondent may,
38 within 30 days thereafter, file a return. Any material allegation of the petition not 39 controverted by the return is deemed admitted for purposes of the proceeding. The 40 return must comply with Penal Code section 1480 and must be served on the 41 petitioner.

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

(e) Denial

Within 30 days after service and filing of a return, the petitioner may file a denial. Any material allegation of the return not denied is deemed admitted for purposes of the proceeding. Any denial must comply with Penal Code section 1484 and must be served on the respondent.

(f) Evidentiary hearing; when required

Within 30 days after the filing of any denial or, if none is filed, after the expiration of the time for filing a denial, the court must either grant or deny the relief sought by the petition or order an evidentiary hearing. An evidentiary hearing is required if, after considering the verified petition, the return, any denial, any affidavits or declarations under penalty of perjury, and matters of which judicial notice may be taken, the court finds there is a reasonable likelihood that the petitioner may be entitled to relief and the petitioner's entitlement to relief depends on the resolution of an issue of fact. The petitioner must be produced at the evidentiary hearing unless the court, for good cause, directs otherwise.

(g) Reasons for denial of petition

Any order denying a petition for writ of habeas corpus must contain a brief statement of the reasons for the denial. An order only declaring the petition to be "denied" is insufficient.

(h) Extending or shortening time

On motion of any party or on the court's own motion, for good cause stated in the order, the court may shorten or extend the time for doing any act under this rule. A copy of the order must be mailed to each party.

Advisory Committee Comment (2004)

The court must appoint counsel ~~upon~~ on the issuance of an order to show cause. (In re Clark (1993) 5 Cal.4th 750, 780 and People vs. v. Shipman (1965) 62 Cal.2d 226, 231–232.) The Court of Appeal has held that under Penal Code section 987.2, counties bear the expense of appointed counsel in a habeas corpus proceeding challenging the ~~underlining~~ underlying conviction. (Charlton vs. v. Superior Court (1979) 93 Cal.App.3d 858, 862.) Penal Code section 987.2 authorizes appointment of the public defender, or private counsel if there is no public defender available, for indigents in criminal proceedings.

Rule 4.552. Habeas corpus jurisdiction

(a) Proper court to hear petition

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

1 Except as ~~set forth~~ stated in (b) and (c), the petition must be heard and resolved in the 2 court in which it is filed.

4 (b) Transfer of petition—discretionary

6 (1) The superior court in which the petition is filed must determine, based on the 7 allegations of the petition, whether the matter should be heard by it or in the 8 superior court of another county.

10 (2) If the superior court in which the petition is filed determines that the matter may 11 be more properly heard by the superior court of another county, it may 12 nonetheless retain jurisdiction in the matter or, without first determining 13 whether a prima facie case for relief exists, order the matter transferred to the 14 other county. Transfer may be ordered in the following circumstances:

15
16 (A) If the petition challenges the terms of a judgment, the matter may be 17 transferred to the county in which judgment was rendered.

18
19 (B) If the petition challenges the conditions of an inmate's confinement, it
20 may be transferred to the county in which the petitioner is confined. A 21 change in the institution of confinement that effects a change in the 22 conditions of confinement may constitute good cause to deny the petition.

23
24 (3) The transferring court must specify in the order of transfer the reason for the 25 transfer.

26
27 (4) If the receiving court determines that the reason for transfer is inapplicable, the 28 receiving court must, within 30 days of receipt of the case, order the case
29 returned to the transferring court. The transferring court must retain and resolve 30 the matter as provided by these rules.

31
32 (c) Transfer of petition—mandatory

33
34 If the petition challenges the denial of parole or the petitioner's suitability for parole
35 and is filed in a superior court other than the court that rendered the underlying 36 judgment, the court in which the petition is filed must transfer the petition to the 37 superior court in which the underlying judgment was rendered. The court must 38 transfer the case before determining whether the petition states a prima facie case for 39 relief and specify in the order of transfer the reason for the transfer.

40
41 (d) Single judge must decide petition

REORGANIZED CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT
APPROVED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL, EFFECTIVE 1/01/07

A petition for writ of habeas corpus filed in the superior court must be decided by a single judge; it must not be considered by the appellate division of the superior court.

Advisory Committee Comment-(2005)

Subdivision (c). This subdivision is based on the California Supreme Court decision in In re Roberts (2005) 36 Cal.4th 575, which provides that petitions for writ of habeas corpus challenging denial or suitability for parole are to be adjudicated in the court that rendered the underlying judgment.

Division 7. Miscellaneous

Rule 4.601. Judicial determination of factual innocence form

(a) Form to be confidential

Any ~~form CR-150, Certificate of Identity Theft: Judicial Determination Finding of Factual Innocence,~~ (form CR-150) that is filed with the court is confidential. The clerk's office must maintain these forms in a manner that will protect and preserve their confidentiality.

(b) Access to the form

Notwithstanding ~~subdivision~~ (a), the court, the identity theft victim, the prosecution, and law enforcement agencies may have access to the Certificate of Identity Theft: Judicial Finding of Factual Innocence (form CR-150).
